Members Present:

Cllr Anne McLeod	Cllr Oliver Furniss	Cllr Harry Curtis
Cllr Irene Dovey	Cllr Annie Mackenzie	Cllr Kirsty Hyndes
Cllr Amelie Pira	Cllr Nick Waters	Cllr Shaun Moroney
Cllr Alice Tomlinson	Cllr Sue Clegg

Also present:	3 members of the public and RBC Cllr R Upton, Cllr A Brennan and Cllr N Clake
Staff present:	Hayley Gandy (Interim Clerk)

	Chairs Welcome Welcome The portable toilets are currently being well looked after at Wharf Lane and there hasn't been any litter. VJ day is on Friday 15th August which will be a low key event.
•	Open Forum A member of the public wished to comment the following: the litter pick station is without litter picks and bags - Action clerk to request a resupply The history board at the Radcliffe pub is missing - Cllr McLeod replied that this was due to road accident and will be proceeding through the insurance. On the vote for the revised budget last week, there were 3 abstentions, it was believed that when dealing with budgets that abstentions are not appropriate and it was asked if a note be put on the minutes to state this so as not to set a precedent - the Clerk confirmed that this is right, abstentions are not appropriate in these circumstances, a note will be added to the minutes. It was requested that there be a public statement given in respect to the breach of the code of conduct. Cllr McLeod stated that this has been dealt with and has been reported to the Monitoring officer and no public statement is required. A representative from the Bellringers group is in attendance in respect of the grant application to restore the clock on St Mary's Church which has been out of action for the last 6 months.
	Reports from Borough and County Councillors

	RBC Cllr Neil Clarke reported that he will be involved with the VJ day at the memorial at the church. He gave a plea for volunteers with Remembrance Sunday. The Local Government Reorganisation is still ongoing, there will be a meeting at County hall on 11th September. This only affects County, City and Borough and District Council, this does not affect town and parish councils, unless when the times comes they request to take on more responsibility.
